

Brenningmeyer, Ingrid

The Sociology of Fashion

Paris (Librairie du Recueil Sirey); Köln, Opladen (Westdeutscher Verlag) 1963, 182 Seiten

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction

THE NATURE OF FASHION

| | |
|---|---|
| Origin of the Word Fashion | 2 |
| Definition of Fashion and its Related Aspects | 4 |
| Fashion as a Subject of Academic Discussion | 6 |

Part One

THE ORIGIN OF FASHION

| | |
|---|----|
| i. The Beginnings of Clothing | 14 |
| ii. Main Theories as to the Origin of Fashion | 17 |
| 1. The Decoration Theory | 18 |
| Decorative Deformations | 19 |
| Decorative Appendages | 22 |
| 2. The Protection Theory | 29 |
| Taboos, Superstitions and Tribal Rites | 29 |
| Climatic Severities and Hygiene | 31 |
| Battle Dress, Professional and Sportive Clothes | 33 |
| 3. The Modesty Theory | 34 |
| Modesty as a Result of Civilization | 35 |
| The Influence of Religion on Modesty | 38 |
| iii. Conclusion | 46 |

Part Two

THE DIFFUSION OF FASHION

| | |
|---|-----|
| Introduction: Social Psychology as a Basis of Fashion | 48 |
| i. Instinctive Attitudes and the Resulting Characteristics of Fashion | 49 |
| 1. Competition: Imitation and Differentiation | 50 |
| 2. Fickleness of Fashion | 52 |
| 3. Popularity Periods | 52 |
| 4. Psychological Insistence | 53 |
| ii. Fashion Leaders and Adherents | 54 |
| 1. Fashion Instigators | 55 |
| Parisian Fashion Leadership | 56 |
| The Intermediary Role of Mass-Production | 64 |
| 2. Fashion Adherents | 69 |
| 3. Fashion Determination | 73 |
| iii. The Spread of Fashion | 75 |
| 1. The Diffusion of Fashion | 77 |
| Modern Mobility | 77 |
| Fashion Availability | 79 |
| Fashion Propaganda | 80 |
| 2. The Fashion Cycle | 84 |
| Long-Run Fashion Changes | 85 |
| Short-Run Fashion Changes | 89 |
| Scientific Analyses of the Fashion Cycle | 92 |
| iv. Conclusion | 110 |

Part Three

FASHION AND SOCIAL STRUCTURE

| | |
|--|-----|
| Introduction: Fashion as a Mirror of Society | 111 |
| i. Regional Costume and the Regimentation of Dress | 112 |
| The Social Structure | 113 |
| The Development of Regional Costume | 114 |
| Leaders of Regional Costume | 121 |
| Restrictions | 121 |
| Characteristics of Regional Costume | 123 |
| ii. Court Fashion and Monarchical Superiority | 124 |
| The Social Structure | 124 |
| Development of Court Fashion | 125 |
| Leaders of Court Fashion | 130 |
| Restrictions on Court Fashion | 131 |
| Characteristics of Court Fashion | 132 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| iii. Bourgeois Fashion and Social Class | 133 |
| The Social Structure | 133 |
| The Development of Bourgeois Fashions | 136 |
| Leaders of Bourgeois Fashions | 139 |
| Fashion Restrictions | 141 |
| Characteristics of Bourgeois Fashions | 142 |
| iv. Mass Fashion and the Standardization of Dress | 143 |
| The Social Structure | 143 |
| The Development of Fashion | 154 |
| Leaders of Mass Fashion | 160 |
| Restrictions on Fashion | 161 |
| Characteristics of Mass Fashion | 162 |
| v. The New Individualization of the Masses | 164 |
| Great Possibilities | 165 |
| Genuine and Erroneous Individualism | 166 |
| The Problem of Elegance | 168 |
| Individualism and Uniformity | 170 |
| Characteristics of the New Individualism | 173 |
| vi. Conclusion | 174 |
| | |
| SUMMARY | 176 |
| | |
| Bibliography | 179 |