

Roach, Mary Ellen; Eicher, Joanne B.

The Visible Self: Perspectives on Dress

Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey (Prentice-Hall Inc.) 1973, pp. XXV + 246, illustrations

CONTENTS

ILLUSTRATIONS	xi
PREFACE	xxiii
I the STUDY of DRESS	1
1 RECORDS OF THE FORMS OF DRESS	3
actual artifacts	3
visual representations	6
written description and commentary	15
summary	17
2 WRITTEN INTERPRETATIONS OF DRESS	18
moralistic essays, satire, and reform literature	18
prescriptive literature	20
analytical works	26
summary	32
II BODY and DRESS	35
3 PHYSICAL APPEARANCE AND DRESS	37
similarities in physical characteristics	37
variations in physical characteristics	38
summary	49
4 BODY, DRESS, AND ENVIRONMENT	50
body and physiological adaptation to environment	51
clothing and adaptation to environment	55
summary	70

III DRESS as ART	73
5 THE PURSUIT OF BEAUTY		75
finding beauty in dress	75
the universal pursuit of personal beauty	78
unity and variety in form of dress	81
summary	92
6 IDEALS FOR PERSONAL BEAUTY		93
ideals in body form	95
body and dress	96
examples of ideals within different societies	100
achieving the illusion of the ideal body form	103
summary	104
7 THE ART OF DRESS: FORM AND MEANING		105
creating forms of dress	105
analyzing the meaning and form of dress	112
summary	120
8 THE INDIVIDUAL AND THE ART OF DRESS		121
cultural standards for the art of dress	122
change in cultural standards	123
factors influencing choice of dress	123
taste in dress	134
the judges and leaders of taste	136
summary	137
9 DRESS AND THE ARTS		139
dress as decorative art	139
dress as an integral part of the arts	142
similarities between stage costume and everyday dress	142
special requirements of the stage	143
visual and literary arts	156
summary	159
IV DRESS and SOCIETY	161
10 DRESS AND TRADITIONAL SOCIETIES		163
the folk society	164
dress in the folk society	165
the agrarian society	167
dress in the agrarian society	170
summary	172

11	DRESS AND INDUSTRIAL SOCIETIES	174
	urban-industrial society	174
	dress in urban-industrial society	176
	mass society	185
	dress in mass society	186
	the art of dress in mass society	192
	social consensus and dress	194
	summary	196
12	ECONOMIC DIMENSIONS OF DRESS, Ann Corns Slocum	197
	scarce resources and unlimited human wants	198
	existence of an economic system	199
	factors affecting clothing production and distribution	200
	patterns of fiber and apparel consumption	206
	summary	209
13	ONE WORLD OF DRESS	210
	dress and basic human concerns	210
	similarities and differences in dress	212
	dress in the future	221
	summary	224
	NOTES	226
	INDEX	241